

HISTORY TAKE OUT

Can't come to us? We'll come to you!

Moving Day: Colorado Culture
Using objects, photos, and a large walk-on map of the state, students will learn about different cultural groups from Colorado history including the Ute, miners, ancestral Puebloans and mountain men.

Western Work: Colorado Industries of the Past
Students will engage with objects and become "entrepreneurs" in some of Colorado's most important industries. Western Work meets economic, history and geography standards and encourages students to explore natural, capital and human resources through a historical lens.

Duration: 1 hour

Grade level: K-5

Cost: $45 (Cost savings for more sessions per school: 2 classes at $40 each, 3 classes at $35 each)
