A Social Story for Visitors
I am going to the history museum!

It is called the History Colorado Center.
Things I Will Learn

The history museum tells stories about things that have already happened. We call this the past. The past teaches us important things about how we live today.
At the museum I will:

Use walking feet.
Touch things gently.
Take turns with everyone.
There are people who work for the museum who can help me.

They wear black shirts that say “History Colorado.”

My adult can help me, too!
The museum has lots of bathrooms.
The toilets flush by themselves.
The hand dryers are very loud.
There are also paper towels.
I can visit many exhibits:

Destination Colorado

Colorado Stories

Denver A to Z

Living West

Zoom In
Destination Colorado teaches me about the town of Keota in the 1920s.
I can do lots of things like collect eggs and ride an old car!
Colorado Stories teaches me about people and place in the state.
I can do things like work in a silver mine and try ski jumping!
If I need a quiet place, I can go to Lincoln Hills.
Denver A to Z teaches me about the city.
There is a zombie but she is just pretend!
Living West teaches me about water in Colorado.

I can visit Mesa Verde, Baca County, and Our Mountains.
I can do lots of things like water the turkeys and measure the snowmelt.
The Dust Bowl Theater is dark and loud. It is just pretend, but I can leave if I want to.
On the third floor of the museum, I can see lots of interesting things in Zoom In – The Centennial State in 100 Objects.
I am going to the History Colorado Center on ______________________ at _________________________.

I can put that on my calendar!
