

SPECIAL EXHIBIT!

El Movimiento:

The Chicano Movement in Colorado

El Movimiento: The Chicano Movement in Colorado and Pueblo immerses visitors in the urgency, passion and vitality of one of Colorado's most important social movements. In the 1960s and 1970s, Chicano activists in Colorado—an important center in the Chicano movement—fought to end discrimination, secure rights and gain political and social power through education, culture and the arts. El Movimiento uses artifacts, images and the voices of Chicano activists to tell about the struggle for labor rights, land rights and other topics.

The exhibit originally opened in Denver on February 7, 2015. El Pueblo History Museum, with a group of community advisors, brought the exhibit to Pueblo and added Pueblo artifacts and stories.

The exhibit El Movimiento is featured in both English and Spanish text.

Field Trip Bus Funds!

The History Colorado Bus Fund offers field trip assistance to Title One schools wishing to visit El Pueblo History Museum. The funding covers bus transportation (driver and fuel). Schools are responsible for making their own transportation arrangements and paying for the bus. Schools will be reimbursed up to $200. Call Tamara Trujillo for more information, 719-583-0453, or to apply.

HISTORY TAKE OUT

Can't come to us? We'll come to you!

Moving Day: Colorado Culture

Using objects, photographs and a large walk-on map of the state, students become "experts" on various cultural groups that have made Colorado what it is today.

Western Work: Colorado Industries of the Past

Through objects, photographs and role-playing activities, students become "entrepreneurs" in some of Colorado's most important industries. Western Work meets economic, history and geography standards and encourages students to explore natural, capital and human resources through a historical lens.

Digital History Exploration

El Pueblo History Museum Educators come to your school's computer lab to facilitate student exploration of digital exhibits on Ute, Hispano, Fur Trade, Japanese Internment, and African American history.

Duration: 1 hour

Grade level: K-5

Cost: $50

(Cost savings for more sessions per school: 2 classes at $40/each; 3 classes at $30/each)

Hands-on Learning + Critical Thinking

Living History: Crossroads of Culture

Duration: 2 hours
Age level: All ages
Times: 9 am and 12 pm
Cost: $5 per student; Adults free
Discount for Title 1 schools

In this school tour, students have the opportunity to interact with the history of Pueblo—using the adobe trading post that evokes the original El Pueblo, built in 1842. Students make tortillas, learn to trade, dye wool and roleplay characters from Pueblo's past in this historic interactive learning space. This tour can be molded to fit any grade level and it aligns with Colorado Academic Standards.

Rights & Resistance: Civil Rights in Colorado

Duration: 2 hours
Age level: 4th grade or higher
Times: 9 am and 12 pm
Cost: $3 per student; Adults free
Discount for Title 1 schools

Through exploring the changing landscape of civil rights in Colorado—from voting rights to protests, workers rights to the Chicano movement, students develop a better understanding of what it takes to create a better Colorado. This tour includes the award-winning Children of Ludlow exhibit, exploration of the El Movimiento: The Chicano Movement in Colorado and Pueblo exhibit and skills-based activities that align with curriculum standards across multiple grade levels.

Dig to Discover

Duration: 2 hours
Age level: All ages
Times: 9 am and 12 pm
Cost: $5 per student; Adults free
Discount for Title 1 schools

Students will simultaneously develop critical thinking about the past while getting their hands dirty looking for artifacts, making yucca tools, examining bones, and building with adobe. This tour includes access to an actual archaeological dig in the El Pueblo Archaeology Pavilion, site of the original El Pueblo, and it brings history to life with engaging activities that link to state standards.

Constructing Colorado

Duration: 2 hours
Age level: All ages
Times: 9 am and 12 pm
Cost: $5 per student; Adults free
Discount for Title 1 schools

Explore the people and places of Colorado history by constructing some of the state's most iconic structures. Students discover the past by applying adobe to a life-size trading post, building log cabins, taking on the role of coal miners, and re-imagining Mesa Verde through Legos. This tour aligns with state standards, and is designed to inspire curiosity about STEM in the past and future.
