Abstract

This collection provides a glimpse into Collier's life and family and a wider world. Volumes I and II contain newspaper clippings mainly about Denver people and events; church-related items; memorabilia, such as certificates, invitations, programs and correspondence. Volumes III and V are devoted to family photos and memorabilia; and diverse elements, from advertisements to clippings of British royalty. Volume IV provides a broad picture of the world: clippings of buildings, art, monarchies from China to Scotland.

Provenance
