

DENVER, CRIPPLE CREEK & SOUTHWESTERN RAILROAD COMPANY

MSS 824

A Collection of the Colorado Historical Society
all rights reserved

The Denver, Cripple Creek and Southwestern Railroad Company was formed in 1896 for the purpose of running a line from Denver through Cripple Creek, Victor, and Silver Cliff, on through to New Mexico and Arizona. Colorado & Southern bought the railroad's franchise in 1899 for use as the basis of a line built in 1902 from South Platte to Nighthawk.

Box 1

| | | |
|------|--------------|-------------|
| FF 1 | Minutes | 1910 - 1913 |
| FF 2 | Stock ledger | 1906 - 1913 |