Oral History Internship

Internship Title: Oral History Internship
Internship Location: Remote (History Colorado Center, Denver, CO)
Application due: September 14, 2020

Qualified candidates may receive academic credit through their school.

Desired Schedule: 150 hours over the course of a school semester (August 31 - December 15, 2020); hours can be modified based on a student's program goals. Due to the flexible nature of oral history projects, students may work their hours independently, but must be available during business hours (Monday - Friday, 8am - 5pm) for a weekly 1-hour meeting with Curator.

Broad Scope of Position: The Internship project will consist of working with oral histories, including learning how to prepare materials for and conduct an interview; preparing the interview for cataloging; and researching the oral history collection to assemble primary sources for the upcoming Building Denver exhibit. The intern should expect to complete one new oral history interview from start to finish, increase accessibility of the legacy oral history collection by completing ten indices, and contribute at least twenty oral history suggestions to Exhibits. Duties will include research using History Colorado’s Argus catalog and Google, conducting an interview, doing small amounts of data entry for indexing, and writing the catalog record.

Outcomes: This internship will provide the student with valuable on-the-job training in the broad scope of oral histories – from identifying an interviewee (or narrator) to using catalogued oral histories interpretively in an exhibit. The intern will have sole responsibility for the project and be able to direct their work to achieve their own outcomes within the scope of the project. By the end of the internship, the intern should be able to understand how to organize a project to meet deadlines, conduct basic historical research and prepare the findings for access and use, and demonstrate interpersonal skills in an interview setting.

Desired Skills & Academic Field of Study:

- An interest in history and the completion of AP History or similar classes (high school) or minimum one semester of history (college/university).
- Familiarity with the basic functions of Microsoft Word and Adobe Acrobat.
- Access to a computer with internet and Zoom web platform.
- Ability to follow directions well.
