History Colorado is committed to anti-racism practices across its institution and outlined in these grounding virtues. As such, we encourage members of Black, Indigenous, People of Color (BIPOC) LGBTQ+ and persons with disabilities communities to apply for this internship.

Desired Schedule: Three days a week 120-150 hours total or 10-12 weeks starting October 17 . Intern will also need to meet virtually for a History Colorado Intern Cohort group where they will gain knowledge of the institution and network with other interns.

Broad Scope of Position: This internship project will consist of reorganizing and creating an updated archive of closed loan and exhibition files. During the internship, the intern should expect to create a finding aid of legacy unnumbered loan files and activities in Registration Files. Files are organized by loan activity and new loan records may need to be created and added to Collections Database Argus. The intern will assist with data entry of archived legacy unnumbered loan files once renumbered and provide additional support and assistance in loan and exhibition paperwork where requested. Additional archival projects may be assigned to assist the Curator of Archives and Research Center staff with service requests to provide archival experience for the intern.

Outcomes: This internship will provide the student or recent graduate with valuable on-the-job training of records management and archives. The intern will have sole ownership of the project and be able to direct their work to achieve their own outcomes within the scope of the project. Valuable training in the collections management database Argus, a system used by museums across the world, will be gained. By the end of the internship, the intern should be able to understand how to organize a project to meet deadlines, to problem solve museum file discrepancies, and demonstrate knowledge of how to gather information for better organization.

Desired Skills & Academic Field of Study: Undergraduate student, recent graduate, Master's student or recent Master's graduate with focus in Archives and Library Science, Museum Studies, Archaeology, History, Public History, Information Technology, or other related field. If the applicant does not have Archives or Library Science degree, applicant must have demonstrable organizational and efficient data entry experience.
