External Announcement – Internship Opportunity

Internship Title: Trinidad History Museum Education Internships

Internship Location: Trinidad History Museum, Trinidad, CO

Stipend: There are two internship options available:

- Seasonal Intern will receive a stipend of $1,600
- Full Year Intern will receive a stipend of $7,200

The stipend is not salary or compensation. The stipend is meant to support study and research during the tenure of the appointment. Qualified candidates may receive academic credit through their college or university.

Apply by: April 22, 2022

Desired Schedule:

Seasonal Intern – 360 hours (TBD by intern and supervisor) starting May/June, 2022

Full Year Intern – 960 hours (TBD by intern and supervisor) starting May/June, 2022.

(Intern will also need to meet virtually one Friday a month for a History Colorado Intern Cohort group where they will gain knowledge of the institution and network with other interns.)

Broad Scope of Position: Join History Colorado’s Education team and gain experience and knowledge of museum education at the Trinidad History Museum. The intern will assist the Education Coordinator with creation and facilitation of programming. The ideal candidate must be comfortable working with K-12 students; working with primary and secondary sources; and with creating programs and activities for adult and youth audiences. Through this internship, the intern will gain practical experience in the museum education field and have the opportunity to create and facilitate their own programming. The intern will build skills communicating with audiences of small and mid-sized museums and have the ability to experiment and develop new techniques in a collaborative and supportive environment.

Desired Skills & Academic Field of Study: Interest in working with K-12 students, basic computer and internet literacy, creative-minded, strong communication skills, and the ability to work independently and meet deadlines. Recommended for students in Humanities, Social Sciences, Education, English, History, Museum Studies, or related fields.

To Apply for this Position: Submit a cover letter, resume/CV, and your answer to the question below to Director of Volunteer Engagement Emily Dobish, emily.dobish@state.co.us.

As a response to the national protests regarding systemic injustice, History Colorado staff came together to discuss as an institutional community the ways in which History Colorado can advance the work of anti-racism. These Grounding Virtues are the result of our collective process.

Answer this question: How have these guiding principles shown up in your previous work and/or how would you contribute to these virtues in your internship position at History Colorado?

A condition of employment is the successful completion of a background check.

History Colorado is committed to anti-racism practices across its institution and outlined in these grounding virtues. As such, we encourage members of Black, Indigenous, People of Color (BIPOC) LGBTQ+ and persons with disabilities communities to apply for this internship.
