External Announcement – Internship Opportunity

Internship Title: 10th Mountain Division Foundation Internship
Internship Location: Hybrid remote/on location at the History Colorado Center, Denver, CO

Stipend: $4,000. The stipend is not salary or compensation. The stipend is meant to support study and research during the tenure of the appointment and will be issued upon completion of the internship. Qualified candidates may receive academic credit through their college or university.

Apply By: 5pm Mountain Time 7/31/2023

History Colorado is committed to anti-racism practices across its institution and outlined in these grounding virtues. As such, we encourage members of Black, Indigenous, People of Color (BIPOC) LGBTQ+ and persons with disabilities communities to apply for this internship.

Desired Schedule: 350 hours to be completed over late summer/early fall 2023, as to be determined with the supervisor. Applicants must be prepared to complete the internship on-site at History Colorado, with some work completed remotely. (Intern will also need to meet virtually for a History Colorado Intern Cohort group where they will gain knowledge of the institution and network with other interns.)

Broad Scope of Position: History Colorado is seeking an intern to work on an upcoming exhibit centered on the 10th Mountain Division in World War II. This internship is generously sponsored by the 10th Mountain Division Foundation, who are dedicated to sharing the story of the WWII division. The intern will help process existing collections in our 10th Mountain Division Collection, including updating catalog entries, preparing objects for exhibition, and assisting with various tasks related to the opening of the new exhibit, Winter Warriors: the 10th Mountain Division in World War II.

Outcomes: By the end of the internship, the intern will have built museum and public history skills in processing and cataloging collections, as well as preparing collections for a major exhibit.

Desired Skills & Academic Field of Study: Undergraduates, graduate students, and recent graduates with focus in History, Museum Studies, or related fields are eligible to apply. Some knowledge of scanning and digitization procedures is preferred. The successful candidate will be a creative, self-motivated, and intellectually-curious individual committed to the mission of History Colorado to create a better future for Colorado by inspiring wonder in our past.

Additional skills:

- Excellent writing and research skills required
- Familiarity with military history, especially the history of the Second World War, is strongly preferred
To Apply for this Position: Submit a cover letter addressing your interest in the project and your familiarity with military history, a CV or resume including two references with contact details, a writing sample (preferably of a recent research or historiographical paper), and your answer to the question below to Director of Volunteer Engagement Emily Dobish, emily.dobish@state.co.us.

As a response to the national protests regarding systemic injustice, History Colorado staff came together to discuss as an institutional community the ways in which History Colorado can advance the work of anti-racism. These Grounding Virtues are the result of our collective process.

Answer this question: How have these guiding principles shown up in your previous work and /or how would you contribute to these virtues in your internship position at History Colorado?

A condition of employment is the successful completion of a background check.
