History Colorado is committed to anti-racism practices across its institution and outlined in these grounding virtues. As such, we encourage members of Black, Indigenous, Latino Hispanic, People of Color, LGBTQ+ and persons with disabilities communities to apply for this internship.

Apply By: April 28, 2024

Desired Schedule: 6 hours/week (May 16 - August 3, 2024).

Broad Scope of Position: Join the History Colorado Exhibits team to learn skills and expand knowledge of exhibition development in museums. The Exhibits Intern will work under the supervision of History Colorado's Exhibit Developer and Historian. Primary duties will include:

- Assist with the development of our upcoming exhibition on the 1990s which explores how the decade bridged the past and present in a unique way, and how the events of the 90s continue to shape our lives today.
- Locate historic photos and acquire their rights for display
- Conduct research and identify potential objects for the exhibition

Outcomes: The intern will learn about exhibition development and general museum practices. By the end of the internship they will be aware of what they like and dislike about exhibition development within a history museum setting.

Desired Skills & Academic Field of Study: The applicant should be a student or recent graduate in the field of Museum Studies, History, Education, or a related field. Additionally, the applicant must be detail oriented with a high degree of self-motivation.

To Apply for this Position: Submit a cover letter, resume/CV, and your answer to the question below to Director of Volunteer Engagement Emily Dobish, emily.dobish@state.co.us.

As a response to the national protests regarding systemic injustice, History Colorado staff came together to discuss as an institutional community the ways in which History Colorado can advance the work of anti-racism. These Grounding Virtues are the result of our collective process.
