Apply By: 5pm Mountain Time, 05/31/2024

Desired Schedule: 12-15 hrs a week for 8-10 weeks (2 days a week, Monday through Thursday, 10 am - 4 pm.) June 10 – August 23, 2024.

History Colorado is committed to anti-racism practices across its institution and outlined in these grounding virtues. As such, we encourage members of Black, Indigenous, Latino Hispanic, People of Color, LGBTQ+ and persons with disabilities communities to apply for this internship.

Broad Scope of Position: The Internship project will consist of reorganizing and creating an updated archive of closed loan and exhibition files. The intern should expect to create a finding aid of loan files and summary of loan activities in Registration Files. Files are organized by loan activity and new loan files may need to be created and added to Collections Database Argus. Duties will include assisting with data entry of archived loan files once reorganized and providing additional support and assistance in loan paperwork where requested.

Outcomes: This internship will provide the student or recent graduate with valuable on-the-job training of records management and archives. The intern will have sole ownership of the project and be able to direct their work to achieve their own outcomes within the scope of the project. Valuable training in the collections management database Argus, a system used by museums across the world, will be gained. By the end of the internship, the intern should be able to understand how to organize a project to meet deadlines, to problem solve museum file discrepancies, and demonstrate knowledge of how to gather information for better organization.

Desired Skills & Academic Field of Study:

- Master's student or recent Master's graduate with focus in Archives or Library Science
- If applicant doesn't have Archives or Library Science degree, applicant must have archives experience
- Ability to follow directions well.
- Detail-oriented with an ability to synthesize information.
- Comfortable being self-directed but must be willing to ask questions and seek direction when unsure.
