

HISTORY TAKE OUT

Can't come to us? We'll come to you!

Moving Day: Colorado Culture
Using objects, photos, and a large walk-on map of the state, students will learn about different cultural groups from Colorado history including the Ute, miners, ancestral Puebloans and mountain men.

Western Work: Colorado Industries of the Past
Students will engage with objects and become "entrepreneurs" in some of Colorado's most important industries. Western Work meets economic, history and geography standards and encourages students to explore natural, capital and human resources through a historical lens.

Duration: 1 hour

Grade level: K-5

Cost: $50 (Additional classes $25 each.

Mileage costs for groups outside Montrose County)

Digital Resources for Educators

2018 - 2019 SCHOOL PROGRAMS

explore...discover...learn...

Visit Ute Indian Museum!

Through our engaging and interactive educational programs, students of all ages can come away with a meaningful experience that connects them to the history and living culture of the Ute people.

- Standards. All of our school programs align with Colorado Academic Standards. Please ask for a list of standards addressed by our school tours. Email carly.jones@state.co.us.
- Follow-Up! We provide follow-up activities to continue your learning experience beyond the museum.

Hands-on Learning + Critical Thinking

Duration: 2 hours
Grade level: 4 - 12
Cost: $7 per student

Ute Arts & Culture

In this tour, students will learn Ute loom beading techniques used by Ute artisans to make their own beaded bracelet while learning about the rich history and culture of the Ute people. This tour will look at the heritage of the Ute people and celebrate their continuing legacy. The tour includes a scavenger hunt through the museum.

Duration: 90 minutes
Grade level: 2 - 6
Cost: $5 per student

Jr. Archaeologist

In this program, students will look at the traces left behind by the early Ute people through the lens of an archaeologist. They will have the opportunity to get dirty looking for artifacts in their own dig site, learn the importance of heritage conservation, and discover some of the hidden meaning behind Native American Rock Art. The tour includes a scavenger hunt through the museum.

Duration: 1 hour
Grade level: preK - 2
Cost: $4 per student

Look, Listen, Do

This tour is designed to introduce younger students to Native American history in an exciting and fun way. Our Look, Listen, Do tour includes an interactive story time, a mini tour of our museum site and an engaging game of Native American Sign Language BINGO (complete with prizes) perfect for early learners.

All of our tours can be tailored to the needs of your classroom.
