Boardman, Alonzo H.

26 p.

Alonzo H. Boardman was born February 4, 1826, near the town of Bear Lake, Warren County, Pennsylvania. He later moved to Fond DuLac, Wisconsin where he worked as a city clerk. On June 23, 1850, he married Nancy T. Burgess. Boardman later became station agent for the Chicago and Northwest Railroad in Neehah, Wisconsin. He died suddenly on July 19, 1876.

The collection contains copies of letters written by Boardman while enroute to and as a resident of the Colorado Territory in 1863. The copies were donated to the Colorado Historical Society by Phil D. Boardman, Alonzo Boardman's grandson, in 1972.
