Brackett, Albert G.

17 p.

Colonel Albert G. Brackett spent a number of years after the Civil War on the western frontier in command of military posts for the 2nd United States Cavalry. At one time, he was commander of Fort D.A. Russell, commander at Fort Sanders, and spent some time at Fort Bridger.

The collection contains a typed manuscript copy of a history of Fort Bridger, Wyoming, by Colonel A.G. Brackett (1870).
