

00091

Buchanan, Thomas J.

24 p.

Thomas J. Buchanan lived in Ackworth, Georgia up through the Civil War. After the war, he moved to Colorado where he was a judge of the Miner's Court in Central City in the late 1860's.

The collection contains correspondence (1907), legal material (1868), and miscellaneous material (1872). The legal material contains affidavits and petitions regarding the destruction of Buchanan's property by General Sherman's troops during the Civil War.

Collection Number 91

Buchanan, Thomas J.

Correspondence (1907)

FF	Description	Date
1	Letter to Martha Hampson from Addie Chapman	Mar. 1907

Legal Material (1868)

2	Affidavits	Feb. 1868
3	Request for compensation of destroyed property	3/27/1868
4	Affidavits	Mar. 1868
5	Petition for compensation for T.J. Buchanan	Mar. 1868
6	Affidavits, unsigned	1868
7	Affidavits	undated
8	Agreement of partnership between S.B. Ulhorn and T.J. Buchanan	undated
9	Petition for compensation for T.J. Buchanan	undated

Miscellaneous Material (1872)

10	Marriage certificate of James Bundell and Harriet Ownbez	April 1872
11	Envelope (empty) which held affidavits of T.J. Buchanan	undated